ST.KILDA ROAD FIRST XVIII 2012

Season 2012 presented many challenges to the Wesley football program – not least was attempting to overcome a lack of depth in the Senior list. An undermanned First XVIII inevitably meant undermanned Fourth XVIIIs, and the StKilda Road squad was hardest hit. After losing the exciting Ed Coyne and the determined Michael Gregory to the Seconds after several rounds we remained one or two instigators short for the rest of the season. To make matters worse, the expansive interchange benches of previous years were rarely seen, and several fixture anomalies placed us squarely in the firing line. Nevertheless, our core of second year players succeeded in passing on the unique parcel that is Fourths' football to the season's newcomers. Although the scoreboard might have wounded, it did not suppress our spirit.

The energy, athleticism and commitment of James Kenyon-Smith never failed and he found hardworking on ball allies in the versatile Isaak Newcombe, the space invading Seb Mundy, the exciting Simon Kerwin, the steady Jack Harris and – until injured – the focused David Ellinghaus. Hunter Hammond acted as a lifeline through the central corridor and Remy Perin used his height to advantage as a free ranging forward.

Will Thornton provided good service as a key defender whilst Joe Griffin gave little away at Full Back. Great defensive support came from the nuggety Jai Fernandes-Kemp, the aggressive Kade Main and two improvers, Jack Strachan and Ed Dawson. Hamish Wallace and Jacob Gronsbell-Luntz clocked up countless one percenters in and around the packs and Will Bird was never far from the action. Jamie Beer and Brandon van Niekerk guaranteed that opponents earned their possessions. Round Six saw the long awaited debut by Shaphieh Esharc , and his fans were not disappointed.

Alex Cullen presented and contested as our spearhead but didn't quite produce the bag of which he had dreamt. Lively forwards drifted in and out of the team during the season, most notably, Nick Rosenthal, Grant Silbert and Chris Zhang, whilst guest appearances from Aaron Fiddes, Sam Holland, Ben Cairney, Tom Anderson, Connor Cunliffe, Josh O'Sullivan, Jeremy Nadel, James Yucel, Cam Gatt, Daniel Wolfe and Conrad Rzechorzek were welcomed.

Parental support was also welcomed on match days and I was again grateful for the assistance provided by Assistant Coach Rob McArthur at training and in the thick of battle.

Richard Stone (Coach)

Best and Fairest: James Kenyon-Smith

Most Consistent: Isaak Newcombe & Hunter Hammond

Most Improved: Seb Mundy

You have to admit that The Newk, REM and Jimmy have scrubbed up surprisingly well!

"Fabio" Hammond sports a stylish lounge suit whilst Tobias prefers the slimline formal look

EMBARRASSING MISSES: Hammond, Rosey

SEEN & NOTED:

- * Dom's training accident making headlines
- * An annoying fixture change = A Road Trip
- * Jim K-S claims an early victory - the toss!
- * Lions take to the field with only 15 players
- * Windy conditions prove difficult to master
- * GC dominant on the first half scoreboard but undermanned Lions perform creditably
- * Full blooded tackling by Simon K and Jai F-K show Geelong that we mean business
- * Clever switching by Ed Coyne sets up the midfielders but rebounding is inevitable with 15
- * Smokin' Joe producing a fine clearing kick
- * Seb & Simon set up Newk for a running goal
- * Jack Strachan & Jai maintaining the pressure
- * Brandon running hard and tackling hard
- * Hunter proving a valuable midfield catalyst
- * Eddy D regaining his footy feet after a layoff
- * Rosey (ex SS now RS) creating options and setting up the Skipper for our second major
- * Smokin' Joe producing a dud of a grubber
- * Geelong's generous donation of a couple of subs for the second half pays dividends..
- * Seb busy around the packs and along the wing
- * Will Thornton contesting & clearing strongly
- * Jigz never allowing an easy Geelong possession
- * Cuzz leading to the hotspot, marking at full stretch & kicking truly (but not often enough!)
- * The Newk reading the aerial ball well and dobbing our fourth for the quarter
- * Jai fighting on despite a pair of bruised digits but Simon is forced to depart the field
- * Seb capitalising on another Rosey goal assist
- * Generous distribution of ice by the local nurse
- * A 4 quarter effort against the odds is rewarded with a Maccas' pitstop. Yummo!

GOALS: Perin 2, Kenyon-Smith, Silbert
BEST: Kenyon-Smith, Hammond, Mundy, Main, Perin, Newcombe, Gronsbell, Harris Kerwin, Thornton, Fernandez-K, Silbert, Griffin, Cullen, Van Niekerk, Wallace, Esharc, Rosenthal,
INJURIES: Kerwin (proverbials), Main (shoulder), Jigz (most body parts)
GOAL of the DAY: They were all welcome
RESILIENCE AWARD: Gronsbell aka Jigz
SEEN & NOTED:

- * Lions proudly donning the blue & grey away strip but not without a pang of nostalgia for the vibrant Peninsula Guernsey
- * The rain belt living up to its reputation and providing a challenging surface
- * Hunter "Fabio" Hammond raising his game to the level of his svelte hairstyle
- * Jimmy K-S taking to the conditions like a rower to water - splish, splash, splosh
- * Kade relishing the heavy going but enjoying the tackling experience a shade too much
- * Shumpah holding his ground against the enemy despite those all purpose moon boots
- * Captain Jack bearing the SKR flag with true Olympic spirit (but gold proves elusive)
- * Kermit Kerwin happily playing in the pond
- * The Jig Master bouncing back from treatment that would have crushed a lesser man
- * Will Thornton persistently excavating the contested ball from the bottom of packs
- * Seb skating over the surface to cover vast acreages as if it was a dry day
- * Smokin' Joe not allowing the drizzling rain to extinguish his fire
- * Grant slipping us into his busy sporting schedule to provide an extra offensive option
- * Newk contributing another four quarters' worth of solid, multi-faceted football
- * Remy playing above his stated condition to be a valuable instigator and converter
- * Cuzz using the body well to block opponents and assist his team mates
- * Brandon working hard in the physical phase
- * Rosey dropping in to remind us of his existence
- * Jai finding conditions well suited to his close-to-the-ground, body-on-body style of footy
- * Hamish producing more of the one percenters for which he continues to earn respect

Who says footballers aren't cultured? "Rudolph" Kenyon-Smith and Primo Uomo "Fabio" Hammond perform a pas-de-deux from Tchaikovsky's "Swan Lake". Bravissimi!

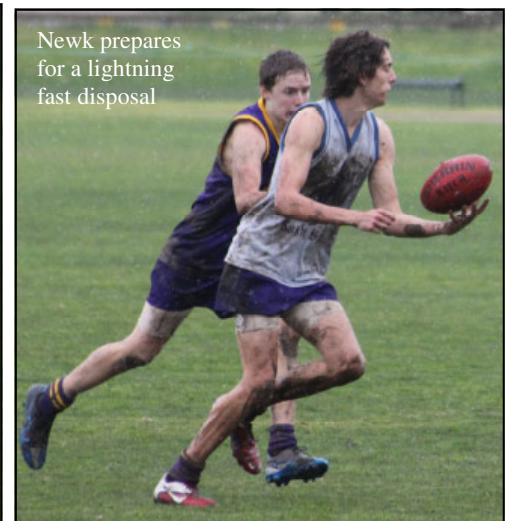

Kade Main in the box seat

Skipper Jack Harris about to sell a very expensive dummy

Seb scans the field for the most attractive option

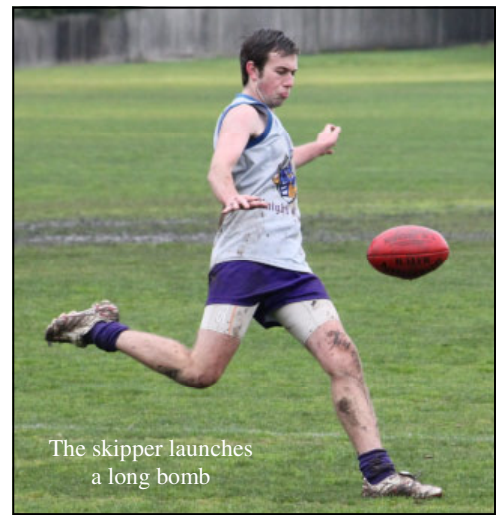

Newk prepares for a lightning fast disposal

Hunter displaying poise and finesse

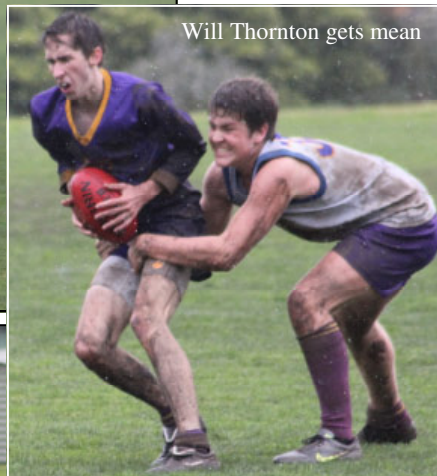

Simon about to be crunched

The skipper launches a long bomb

Seb Mundy strains a sinew or two as he strives for extra yardage

Will Thornton gets mean

Another party trick

Newk takes a tumble!

Hunter forces his way into front position

A strong lead by REM is rewarded

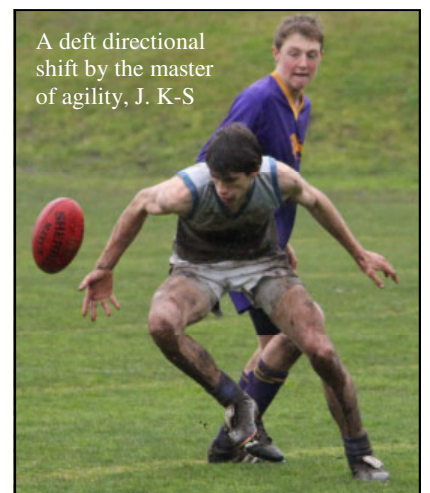

Slippery Silbert weaves his way through traffic

He hasn't got it ump!

Seb and Harro track the Sherrin

A deft directional shift by the master of agility, J. K-S

A handball as good as a kick!
Hunter releases a long one...

Jimmy trudges through the mud

HH takes care of an annoying opponent

What the well dressed Lion is wearing this winter

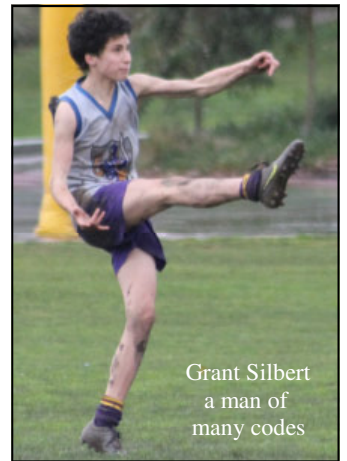

You know who again!

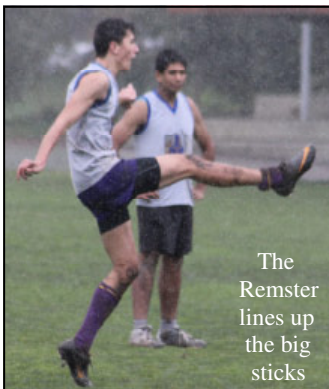

Harro learns to dribble...

Out of my way buster!

Grant Silbert a man of many codes

The Remster lines up the big sticks

Cuzz

Take a bow Will Thornton!

Smokin Joe is thwarted in his attempt to souvenir a collector's item

Grant's shot at goal is in serious danger

Solid!

YAY TEAM!!

Most Embarrassed Xaverian: The guy who kicked the ball the wrong way!

SEEN & NOTED:

- * Kaptain Kade forced to sit out the first term while his manager retrieved his mouthguard
- * Jimmy, Jimmy, Jimmy... you are a STAR!!!
- * Another steady four quarter performance from the Newk (Yes, we'll miss those red boots!)
- * Jack Harris succeeding again with his "actions speak louder than words" approach to the game
- * Rosey spinning out of trouble and almost snapping the goal of the day
- * Jamie Cordial getting straight into the action - once he could find a parking spot
- * Birdman fired up after a long bike ride
- * Hamish releasing handballs from tight corners
- * Kermit Kerwin almost back to his busy best
- * Will Thornton playing it close again at CHB
- * Jai nipping ankles, retrieving stray balls and attacking Xaverians with ferocity
- * Jigz never far away from packs and contests
- * Seb anticipating, instigating, finishing and refusing to let a Xaverian have the last word!
- * Smokin' Joe producing another close checking hard hitting four rounds... but the kicking!!!
- * Shumpah adds a kick to his season's stats tally
- * The lanky Remster presenting well but finding the ball a tad unco-operative
- * Jack Strachan putting his body on the line
- * Cuzz a notch away from spearhead stardom...
...if he could move a bit quicker, hold more marks & kick more goals he'd be a deadset champion!
- * Hunter "I've been everywhere man" Hammond roaming far & wide but sadly ending up in hospital with an illtimed last minute injury
- * Ed Dawson inspired by off field Olympic action
- * Farewell 2012... not as much scoreboard fun as we would have liked but a good time was had by all!

Conversion Corner

with The Jig Master

I suppose you're wondering why I got the gig on this page. I bet you thought I was just one of the overworked cogs in the Lion defence. Well, I proved everybody wrong this year when I snuck down forward against the mighty Xavs and slotted a pair of sausage rolls. Now I know how Plugger and Buddy and all the other goalkicking legends must feel. In a lean goalscoring year for the Lions my pair of gems were without doubt the high point of the 2012 season.

On the run—the Newk at the Trott

Crunchtime

with Jai

The best thing about footy is the one on one stuff. I love to get physical! Here are a few of my fave photos of the Lions flexing their muscles or flying the Wesley flag in 2012. I hope you like them!

Nobody's going to mess with the Jaister!

Down for the count!

Chill out man! It's only 4ths!

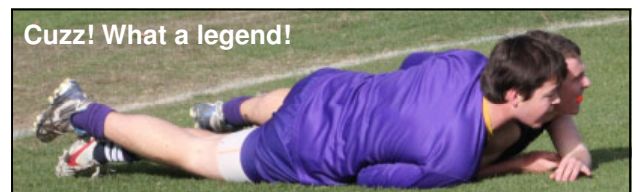

That's it! Stay right there!

Love your work Hammo!

OUCH!

Speak the Speech... with Lenny

I love an audience! Whether it's an APS debate, an ATC production or a pre-match address, I'm inspired by the challenge of verbal communication. Inflecting the poetry of the Bard, crystallising concepts and arguments or leading my team mates in an anticipatory prayer are each equally satisfying activities to a wordsmith such as myself.

To enter the "Zone" before a big game requires discipline and focus. In guiding my team mates towards their spiritual centre I tried to fuse elements of Chinese Buddhist mantra with key phrases drawn from the Manichean catechism... but I have to admit the results were not wholly convincing!

Former PM Kevin Rudd displayed considerable potential as a public speaker but his career was tragically cut short when he failed to listen attentively to backstage whispers.

Yo bunny bro

THE ADVENTURES OF HAMMO & REMY

Hamish & Andy have got nothing on our very own crazy mad-cap pair, Hammo & Remy. The boys go back a long way and have managed to sustain their friendship and sense of humour despite sporting the purple and gold for almost a lifetime.

..but that doesn't rhyme.. you can't say symmetrye

SMOOTHVILLE!

The boys relive their days as bunny cubs in the Hutch

Gosh! I can't believe how small everything is!

The boys return to the Prep School — the scene of many a zany childhood escapade

Just for laughs with CUZZ

Welcome back footy fans! Even though the Lions didn't have much luck with the scoreboard this year we still found plenty to chuckle about. After all, you can't take Fourths footy too seriously!

LOL!
